Florida surgeon general's warning to the CDC and FDA officials:

“Your ongoing decision to ignore many of the risks associated with mRNA COVID-19 vaccines alongside your efforts to manipulate the public into thinking they are harmless, have resulted in a deep distrust in the American health care system.”

(Natural News) Health authorities in America love to tell the populace to “follow the science,” but that’s exactly what they avoid doing when it does not serve their narrative. This is the case with the Fauci Flu jabs, also called the Wuhan (COVID-19) “vaccines,” even though they’re NOT vaccines at all and were not approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for human administration.

According to Florida's Surgeon General Dr. Joseph Ladapo, America's top public health officials are ignoring the risks associated with mRNA gene therapy injections and are avoiding the science that proves them.

Ladapo said a "lack of transparency only harms Americans' faith in science" and he implored the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and FDA commissioners and directors to explain why they are not following the science on this and being transparent with the American people (who are paying for the jabs and suffering from their deadly effects).

Ladapo advises Americans NOT to trust the American healthcare system

Here is the Florida surgeon general's warning to the CDC and FDA officials: "Your ongoing decision to ignore many of the risks associated with mRNA COVID-19 vaccines alongside your efforts to manipulate the public into thinking they are harmless, have resulted in a deep distrust in the American health care system."

He continued to lecture them on responsibility, lack of transparency and endangerment to every person being injected with experimental neurotoxins (spike proteins that mimic gain of function virus). "Beginning with Operation Warp Speed, and possibly to be continued with an additional $5 billion investment in Project NextGen, the federal government has relentlessly forced a premature vaccine into the arms of the American people with little to no concern for the serious adverse ramifications," he said.

The COVID-19 shots caused a 1,700 percent spike in Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) and a 4,400 percent jump in "life-threatening conditions." Ladapo called on the CDC and FDA to publicly explain why these have been hidden from the public, doctors, nurses and everyone who has ever questioned the safety and efficacy of this vaccine violence campaign of terror.

Dr. Ladapo even called the officials at the CDC and FDA "charlatans" who are engaged in "medical quackery." In fact, they never even ran clinical trials on the booster shots, while postponing reports that revealed the clot shots cause the masses to develop myocarditis and harm pregnant women. If their excuse is "vaccine hesitancy," then the word “hesitancy” needs to be redefined as “terrified of the results” because the science reveals the clot shots are FAR more damaging than helpful, if there is ANY benefit to getting them at all anyway. Ladapo’s warnings are not focused on “rare” events, as the CDC pharma shills would have us all believe.

In fact, spike proteins travel from the site of injection and cruise throughout the vascular system, polluting the most vital organs, including the brain, liver, kidneys, pancreas, uterus and the heart. The clot shots even cause turbo cancer. Maybe every doctor in America needs to attend a seminar that shows the autopsies of many injected people who have died with spike protein clogs in their vital organs, and see just how dangerous the clot shots really are for humanity. This is no conspiracy theory. Follow the science folks. Follow the science.
